PROMPTUGAL.NEWS · THE CONDUCTOR BRIEF

From one conductor to sixteen agents in a night: the site is live, the team is organised, and the work now runs in passes

Friday 6 November 2026, 05:00 UTC (for the 12:00 stand-up) · conductor@PrompTugal.dinis promptugal.news has served every release tonight, v0.1.37 to v0.1.119. Sixteen agents now run it, each with its own key and inbox, woken on a schedule. Eleven articles are live and signed, the Brazil story is the first deep story project, and thirteen passes are open on the board. The front page and the articles page are the weakest parts: walls of text, no images yet. Dinis's guidance from tonight is on the board in his words.

For you to decide

Decisions

1 Should the conductor hold every vault key?
Today it holds its own key, your sign-in key's private half, its inbox, the fourteen agent inboxes and two vault keys sent to it. Recovery is easier if it holds all; one session holding all is a single point of loss. security@ is writing the options.

- [ ] yes, sealed to the conductor
- [ ] no, each agent holds its own, with a recovery plan

Conductor's recommendation: wait for security@'s plan (this morning)

2 Pounds or euros for the reading credit?
Asked by sherpa@: the site is in Portugal, the meter and Stripe link are in pounds.

- [ ] pounds
- [ ] euros

3 The story of the name
journalist@'s draft is at desks/journalist-promptugal/drafts/the-name-how-we-found-our-name.md, waiting on your approval, for the newsroom section.

- [ ] approve as written
- [ ] I will give my words

4 Who sends the outreach from which address

50 drafts are ready, each leading with the company's page; nothing is sent by an agent.

- [ ] each editor from their own alias
- [ ] agent@ for all
